Quantum field theory on anti-de Sitter space-time

Elizabeth Winstanley
University of Sheffield, United Kingdom

Anti-de Sitter space-time is maximally symmetric and this enables expressions for quantum expectation values to be derived in closed form. We employ Hadamard renormalization to find vacuum and thermal expectation values for scalar and fermion fields on this background and discuss their properties.